RIVER AND WEATHER.

AT a STAND .- The river was at a stand last night, with ur feet pine inches water in the canal, the same as ported yesterday morning. We suppose it will be Davis, child of Wm. Davis, causing its death; held ising before morning.

Yesterday was pleasant, as regards temperatu with half a dozen showers in the course of the day. The alns and sunshine of the past two or three days are all that could be desired for the crops, but are not all for the health of the community The little stern-wheeler Ohio, came in last ever ing, and will go out to-day to the head waters of Kentucky river, as far as Frankfort, anyhow. She is n't more than half as big as a miniature, and will be able to run wherever fish can swhm. When the cut-off is fin-ished, she might easily run up Beargrass as far as Ows-ley, Kinnaird & Co.'s pork house. A friend says she can run to the source of the Kentucky, and turn around in the spring. She will carry a pretty good load of freight though, notwithstanding her littleness. TALK ABOUT THE RIVER .- Under this head we intend to give such items of interest, aside from actual news as we may be able to pick up at the river, and we do not doubt that we shall be able to make it quite an agreeable feature to our friends on the river. There was but little talking done yesterday—plenty of time to do it too, but very few inclined to exercise themselves. The Telegraph No. 3, is the regular boat to-day at 120'clock, for Cincinnati. CHICAGO, July 25th. The Kansas Legislature met July 1sth. Its proceedings were principally of a local nature, and without general interest. Mr. Marshall's bill, on the qualification of the voters, was read the second time and referred to the Committee on Elections. Mr. Anderson introduced a bill providing that no person shall be admitted to take a seat in the Legislature without belief and on the committee. the Legislature without taking an eath to support the Fugitive Slave Law, and that all persons con-victed of propagating, or in any way circulating arguments, sontiments or opinious unfavorable to slavery, shall be ineligible to any office of honor, trust or profit in the Territory. The bill was read for the first time. Mr. Wilkinson gave notice that he should introduce a bill for the permanent location of the capitol of Kansas. The place is the tion of the capitol of Kansas. The place is the Sacs Agency, 63 miles from Shawuee. It was unanimously voted, that the sergeant-at-arms should furnish the Houso with a copy of the laws of the Congress of 1559, and the laws of Massachusetts of 1855. The evening session was prefaced by a rough-and-tumble fight between Mr. Millars, editor of the Westfield News, and Mr. Brady, Public Printer of the Territory, both pro-Slavery men but the fight is supposed to have

A FRENCH STORY.—A royal love-letter has come to light, in Lyons, under singular circumstances. A grocer was putting up half a pound of figs, in a yellowish time-worn paper. The purchaser was an amateur of autographs, and his quick eye at once detected a billet-door from Henry IV. to the Belle Bealers in Family Flour, corner Fifth and Gabrielle. When will people learn to destroy their improper correspondence? However, in this case it makes no difference, as Henry IV. had no reputation to lose, nor Belle Gabrielle either:

A Good Pun.—Marquis Bievre was celebrated for his wit, which he frequently displayed in repartees and puns. When presented to Louis XV., the following dialogue took place. Louis: Give me a specimen of your wit. Bievre: Give me a subject. Louis: Take me. Bievre: Sire, the King is no subject.
